DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7 and 8, in the reply filed on 06/02/2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that searching the claims of Groups I and II would not be a burden on the Examiner. This is not found persuasive because the fact that two separate classes of invention are claimed is sufficient to show burden.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4, 5, 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 4, 5, 7 and 8 are indefinite because they depend from cancelled claim 3. For the purposes of examination, claims 4, 5, 7 and 8 will be considered as dependent from claim 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3727

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5, 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Fine.

The cover 16 of Fine meets the structure of applicant's "bag topper" as claimed and applicant's nomenclature for the "bottom panel" does not structurally distinguish it from the panel 17 in Fine.

6. Claims 1, 2, 5, 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mahoney.

The lid 16 of Mahoney meets the structure of applicant's "bag topper" as claimed and applicant's nomenclature for the "bottom panel" does not structurally distinguish it from the panels 60 or 90 in Mahoney.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fine.

Fine discloses the claimed invention except for the bag being made from paper and the cover being made from cardboard. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use paper to make the bag of Fine and cardboard to make the cover, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

9. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mahoney.

Mahoney discloses the claimed invention except for the lid being made from cardboard. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use cardboard to make the lid of Mahoney, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.
